RULES OF PLAY 3

DEALING PROCEDURE 3

TABLE LAYOUT 5

HAND EXAMPLES 6

RULES OF PLAY

1. Empty The Rack with Break The House Blackjack® is standard house-banked Blackjack but with two optional bonus wagers. All rules pertaining to standard Blackjack as posted on the WSGC website remain the same and are not altered in this game.
2. Empty The Rack with Break The House Blackjack® may be played with 2, 6 or 8 standard 52-card decks.
3. At the start of the hand, prior to the dealing of any cards, the player has the option to play either the “Empty The Rack Blackjack” and/or “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wagers by placing their desired wager amount in the “Empty The Rack Blackjack” and/or “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wager circles. Operators must not allow wagering limits to exceed the authorized limits set out in WAC 230-15-040 and WAC 230-15-140.

DEALING PROCEDURE

(If any automatic shuffle machine or a continuous dealing shoe is used in conjunction with this game, it must be a WSGC approved model and manufactured by a WSGC licensed manufacturer)

1. The dealer shall wait until each player has placed their required main Blackjack and optional “Empty The Rack Blackjack” and/or “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wagers prior to dealing any cards for that hand.
2. Next, the dealer shall carry out standard house blackjack procedure in dealing the initial two cards to each player and the dealer.
3. Next, based upon the strength of the player’s initial two cards (and in some cases the dealer’s, if the dealer has blackjack), at this time, before any action is taken by any player, the dealer will resolve any “Empty The Rack Blackjack” wagers.*
 - * If the dealer has an Ace up, they shall offer Insurance to the players (if available) prior to checking their hand for Blackjack and resolving the “Empty The Rack Blackjack” bonus wagers.
 - * If the dealer has a 10-value card (10, Jack, Queen or King) or an Ace up, they shall check for Blackjack before the resolution phase in order to determine if any player possessing a 20 or a Blackjack qualifies for one of the top pay events.
4. When a player makes a Break The House Blackjack bonus wager and is dealt a blackjack or draws to a hand that exceeds 21 points and busts, after resolving the main blackjack wager accordingly, the dealer will push back that player’s hand into one stack and leave the hand in front of the player’s main betting circle until the conclusion of that hand.
5. At the conclusion of the hand, if the dealer’s final blackjack hand exceeds 21 points and the player’s hand is 28 points or less, the dealer shall resolve each player’s “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wager according to the posted pay table.
 - If the dealer is dealt a blackjack, all players’ “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wagers lose.
 - If the dealer’s final hand does not exceed 21 points, all players’ “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wagers lose.
 - In the event all players bust or have blackjack and there are active “Break The House Blackjack” wagers, the dealer will play out the hand to its conclusion (drawing cards as if players are still live in the hand) in order to resolve the active “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wagers.

6. Once all main Blackjack, “Empty The Rack Blackjack” and/or “Break The House Blackjack” bonus wagers are resolved, a new hand will begin following the same set of procedures.
